

Kay Woods Hafen

July 31, 1913 - Oct. 7, 1918

Sad Fatal Accident

The community was shocked to learn the death by accident of Kay Woods Hafen, the five-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur K. Hafen, Monday.

The child was playing about his home Monday morning and just before noon he joined his little chum Mac Morris and climbed onto a trail wagon loaded with copper ore, driven by Mahonri Snow. He got on the wagon near his home. Snow looked around and saw the boys sitting on the end of the trail wagon, they were singing and Snow jokingly remarked to them if they made such a noise they would scare his horses. After going some little distance, to a point just beyond Robert Ashby's home, they decided to get off. They got on the trail tongue between the wagons, and from this Mac jumped clear. His little playmate somehow fell dislocating his neck and breaking his shoulder bone. The driver did not see the boys get off, but happened to look around and saw Mac holding Kay up by the hands. Snow called back, "is he hurt," and realizing that he was, got off the wagon and carried the child into the Ashby residence, at the same time signaling to his wife, who was standing in the doorway of the Snow home, to telephone for the doctor.

Robert Ashby at once left on a bicycle to notify Mr. and Mrs. Hafen. Dr. Woodbury was soon at the place but could do nothing for the dear little fellow. Mrs. Hafen arrived just after the doctor and was in time to see her child before he passed away.

The heartfelt sympathy of the whole community, and of Santa Clara, the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Hafen, goes out to the sorrowstricken parents in their great loss. Kay was their oldest child, born July 31, 1913.

Funeral services were held in the Tabernacle at four p.m. Tuesday. There was a great number of friends present, the body of the large building being packed. The decorations were beautiful, a profusion of flowers, roses and others, covering the casket and stand. Bishop Ed. R. Frie of Santa Clara, Elder Jos. K. Nicholes and Pres. Thomas P. Cottam spoke feelingly and consolingly to the parents. Several hymns were sung by the Dixie Normal College chorus, and a violin solo was rendered by Prof. Earl Bleak.

Interment was made at the city cemetery, the grave being dedicated by Pres. David H. Cannon. The grave was covered with floral offerings. Among the floral tributes were a beautiful bouquet from Prof. Hafen's class of last year, one from his class of this year, and one beautifully designed of rosebuds to form the letter "K" from the College faculty with expressions of sympathy.

Linford Lamond Hafen

Dec. 6, 1925 - March 1, 1926

Our baby Linford Lamond died on his mother's lap when he was nearly three months old. He was sick only a few hours, quick pneumonia, it was called, took him rather suddenly. As the doctor was out of town, there was not much we could do to help him. The nurse, Mrs. Whitehurst, again came to give us what help she could. Ada remembers kissing him when she left for school and returning home at noon to find he had just passed away. Orilla always felt sad that they had not taken a picture of him.

Joseph Fielding Smith tells us in his book Doctrines of Salvation: Children who die in childhood will not be deprived of any blessing. When they grow, after the resurrection, to full maturity of the spirit, they will be entitled to all the blessings which they would have been entitled to had they been privileged to tarry here and receive them.

In Loving Memory of

*There's a special kind of closeness that only families know,
That begins with childhood trust
and deepens as you grow,
There's a special kind of happiness
in sharing little things,
The laughter, smiles, and quiet talks
that daily living brings,
There's a special kind of comfort
in knowing your family's there,
To back you up, to cheer you up,
to understand and care —
Of all the treasures life may bring your family means the most —
And whether near or far apart that love will hold you close.*

Subject: Re: Ada Update

Hi Michelle... Thank you for your sweet e-mail and thoughts. They are so appreciate by all of us. Here is the update for today !!

Well, Mom is getting weaker and weaker, and just doesn't complain. She looks so beautiful and sweet in her hospital bed, if you can say that is a place anyone could look beautiful. This is a very surreal experience we re going through. Mom is so positive about her impending death, that she talks about it constantly.

We really thought that today was the day. Her care givers called me and said she wanted to talk to me n the phone. Mom hasn't spoken to anyone on the phone for weeks, so I was instantly on high alert. I wass just getting ready to leave to go over to her, and then she called. She was disoriented, talking funny and not making any sense, but in such a weak voice so I flew out of the house. All the grand kids were going to see her this evening after work, but I called them and said, "COME NOW".. so everyone rally'd and got there as soon as they could. She was able to talk to each one of them individually, which was such a gift. After that, she wanted us all to leave as she was really tired. We walked down the street to get a quick bite, and then we all went back up to her room, and her eyes were open really wide, and she was asking us if we had a nice lunch. Go Figure !!

Julie had to leave to go to work, but Michelle, Bryan and Amie stayed on for awhile. Rick said he need to get home to do a few things, and Brenda had to get back to school,too. Here is the real kicker...The next thing I see her doing is, she is explaining to the kids how to play bridge. A major tutorial on a very difficult card game. Then right in the middle of her explanation of everything, she asks "Oh, by the way, did any of you win the Lotto?" We all just looked at each other and said," Good Grief...She's back". After about an hour, she started slipping back into her very weak phase, and everyone left except me. She sarterd going inward and within half hour, was back not being able to speak again. The Hospice RN , came to change her medication patch, and she took one little baby bite of her applesauce. She was slipping into sleep, so I left so she could rest. It was a very big day, for her, and all of us.

This is pretty much the routine we are going through, but some of her slides backwards, are longer and bigger. Her doctor doesn't think it will be long, so we continue to treasure every single day we have with her. She is so amazing ,accomplished, and dignified...most of all , so full of such grace and acceptance. I know that God is coming for her real soon. I will keep you informed.

If you would be so kind to forward this e-mail on to your Dad in St. George, and ask him to pass on the update to the family, I would be so grateful. Many thanks for everything.

On a happier note, how is your new grand baby??? Oooooo, more to love ! I know you are having a ball. Our love to everyone. Hugs, Janet

~ To My Dearest Family and Friends ~

Some things I'd like to say... but first of all, to let you know,
I did arrive O.K.

I'm writing this from heaven, where I dwell with God above,
And also, just to let you know, there is eternal love.

Please do not be unhappy, just because I'm out of sight,
Just remember that I'm with you, every morning, noon and night.
I'm walking in your footsteps, only half a step behind.

So, when you feel that gentle breeze, or the wind upon your face, that's me... Just checking in, giving you a hug or a soft embrace

And when it's time for you to go from that body to be free,
Remember you're not going, you are coming home to me.

So, please dry your tears, and show me your smile,
I will always be loving you, from that land way up above,
I'll be in touch, very soon. PS: God sends HIS love.

Dear Janet and Rick:

You don't know me but I know you and have loved your grandparents and parents for a long time. Your cousin Ralph Staheli called to inform me that Ada had passed away and was being buried in Washington. I wanted to write and express my condolences.

Your parents were wonderful people and in their own way blessed my life greatly. Your grandfather Nielsen was my favorite—and best—grade school teacher and, of course, your Hafen grandparents are legends in everyone's life.

I hope I am not presumptuous in sending such a letter or extending the blessings of the Church and the gospel at this time of loss in your lives. If there is anything more personal I could do to help any members of a family I admire so much, please don't hesitate to ask.

With best wishes,

Harold John Hafen

Aug. 23, 1920 - Jan. 19, 2008

Harold J. Hafen passed away January 19, 2008, in Hooper, Utah. He was born August 23, 1920, in St. George, Utah, to Arthur Knight and Orilla Woods Hafen. He had 13 siblings: Kay, Carma, Ferrel, Ada, Herschel, Ruth, Lenore, Linford, Eldon, Erma, Kenneth, Kelton and Donald. He is survived by his wife, Lorena Brown, four children: Carolyn (Dee) Lyman, Sydney (Judith) Hafen, Lana Kay Johnson, Conrad, (Holly) Hafen, 21 grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren.

Harold was raised in St. George, graduated from Dixie Junior College and received his bachelor's degree in education from University of Utah. He was principal of Blanding Elementary and then moved to Roy, Utah, where he taught school for 29 years before his retirement.

Harold and Lorena served in the Ogden temple for six years and filled a 20-month mission as ushers at the Salt Lake Tabernacle on Temple Square.

He was buried in Heber, Utah on January 23 with all of his children there for graveside services, except for two grandchildren who are serving missions for the LDS Church.

A BLESSING, GIVEN BY ALBERT DE LORRA CLARK, PATRIARCH, at St. George, Utah, March 19th., 1933, upon the head of Harold John Hafen, son of Orilla Wood and Arthur Knight Hafen, born at St. George, Utah, August 23rd., 1920.

DEAR BROTHER HAROLD, it is with pleasure that I confer and seal a blessing upon thy head. Thou wast greatly favored by our Heavenly Father in the Spirit World in having the privilege of selecting thy parentage, that you might fulfill a useful mission upon the earth. Thou art of Royal Lineage, a decendent of Joseph who was sold into Egypt, through the loins of Ephraim. Therefore, let purity be uppermost in thy mind, ~~and~~ let faith be thy watchword, and the windows of Heaven will be opened unto thee. And your guardian angel will be pleased to lead thee into all truth, and make thy life as an open book. For the word of the Lord will be borne in upon thy soul through study and the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, which will bring all things to your remembrance that you read and study, to prepare you for your life's mission. Therefore, be meek and humble, obedient to your father and mother, and it will be easy for thee to be submissive to Divine Authority. And you will be greatly added upon, and will marvel at your own ability to grasp the Mission of Life and to understand your responsibilities and magnify your callings, to the approval of our Heavenly Father. Also, in seeking the good things of this earth, you will be directed by divine power to accomplish the most possible good. You already have a disposition and inclination to use the good things of this earth, that the Lord will bless you with, for the establishment of Righteousness, and to bring joy and satisfaction into the hearts of the Needy to whom you will liberally impart of your substance for their blessing and comfort. The pure spirit of Love for humanity will permeate every fiber of your being. It is also designed, that through applying yourself to the needs of humanity, that you shall be a leader in Israel. And also that you shall confound the wisdom of the wise who will seek to overthrow Father's work which has been so successfully established upon the earth. In your supplications to the throne of Grace, in emerging from your secret closet, your first impressions will be reliable, and will lead thee into all Truth. And, when the time arrives for you to seek a companion, remember that one rule, that will always be a guiding star to you- to go to your Heavenly Father. And you will be led to one that will be affable and kind, and a worthy helpmeet throughout the journey of Life. One whom you will be pleased to counsel with, and through your duly considering the affairs of life, you will always arrive at the best conclusions. And you will labor congenially together in all of your undertakings. It is designed that thou shouldst be a preacher of Righteousness, and when you accept this great responsibility, your tongue will be loosed. You will be given original thoughts and ideas that will make of thee a Savior upon Mount Zion, not only of the living, but there are many waiting for the time to come when you will deliver them from the chains that fetter them at the present time. And thus, you will accomplish a great work in the House of the Lord. Your counsel and advice will bring joy and satisfaction unto those with whom you associate, and those who come to you for advice.

I also seal upon thee the righteous desires of thy heart, and seal thee up against the powers of the Destroyer, to finally enjoy an inheritance upon this earth with the sanctified of Israel, in the NAME OF JESUS CHRIST, A-MEN!

DEAR BROTHER HAROLD, it is with pleasure that I confer and seal a blessing upon thy head. Thou wast greatly favored by our Heavenly Father in the Spirit World in having the privilege of selecting thy parentage, that you might fulfill a useful mission upon the earth. Thou art of Royal Lineage, a decendent of Joseph who was sold into Egypt, through the loins of Ephraim. Therefore, let purity be uppermost in thy mind, ~~that~~ let faith be thy watchword, and the windows of Heaven will be opened unto thee. And your guardian angel will be pleased to lead thee into all truth, and make thy life as an open book. For the word of the Lord will be borne in upon thy soul through study and the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, which will bring all things to your remembrance that you read and study, to prepare you for your life's mission. Therefore, be meek and humble, obedient to your father and mother, and it will be easy for thee to be submissive to Divine Authority. And you will be greatly added upon, and will marvel at your own ability to grasp the Mission of Life and to understand your responsibilities and magnify your callings, to the approval of our Heavenly Father. Also, in seeking the good things of this earth, you will be directed by divine power to accomplish the most possible good. You already have a disposition and inclination to use the good things of this earth, that the Lord will bless you with, for the establishment of Righteousness, and to bring joy and satisfaction into the hearts of the Needy to whom you will liberally impart of your substance for their blessing and comfort. The pure spirit of Love for humanity will permeate every fiber of your being. It is also designed, that through applying yourself to the needs of humanity, that you shall be a leader in Israel. And also that you shall confound the wisdom of the wise who will seek to overthrow Father's work which has been so successfully established upon the earth. In your supplications to the throne of Grace, in emerging from your secret closet, your first impressions will be reliable, and will lead thee into all Truth. And, when the time arrives for you to seek a companion, remember that one rule, that will always be a guiding star to you- to go to your Heavenly Father. And you will be led to one that will be affable and kind, and a worthy helpmeet throughout the journey of Life. One whom you will be pleased to counsel with, and through your duly considering the affairs of life, you will always arrive at the best conclusions. And you will labor congenially together in all of your undertakings. It is designed that thou shouldst be a preacher of Righteousness, and when you accept this great responsibility, your tongue will be loosed. You will be given original thoughts and ideas that will make of thee a Savior upon Mount Zion, not only of the living, but there are many waiting for the time to come when you will deliver them from the chains that fetter them at the present time. And thus, you will accomplish a great work in the House of the Lord. Your counsel and advice will bring joy and satisfaction unto those with whom you associate, and those who come to you for advice.

I also seal upon thee the righteous desires of thy heart, and seal thee up against the powers of the Destroyer, to finally enjoy an inheritance upon this earth with the sanctified of Israel, in the NAME OF JESUS CHRIST, A-MEN!

The Doctor knows what his trained eyes see, and he says it's the last of the ninth for me. One more swing as the clouds loom dark and I must leave this noisy park. 'Twas a glorious game from the opening bell—Good Plays, bad plays, thrills pell mell; The speed
of it burned my tears away,
But I thank God that he let me play.

St. George Driver Killed On Highway 18 Sunday As Auto Slides Off Road

A 25-year-old St. George man died early Sunday when his car careened off the highway four-miles north of here.

The victim was Kenneth Ernest Hafen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur K. Hafen of St. George.

The accident occurred Sunday about 1:45 a.m. on highway Utah 18. Washington County Sheriff Roy Renouf said the car was traveling at a high rate of speed when the driver apparently lost control. According to examining officers, one of the rear tires apparently blew out, causing the loss of control.

The vehicle careened some 900 feet before smashing into a rocky cut on the side of the road. The force of the impact, Sheriff Renouf said, completely wrecked the car.

The front windshield popped out and Mr. Hafen was thrown through, striking his head on one of the rocks. The car rolled another 150 feet before coming to rest on the side of the road.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferl Eardley, St. George, said the Hafen vehicle had passed them earlier. They came on the scene of the accident shortly after and notified the sheriff.

Mr. Hafen was a graduate of Dixie College and had been attending Brigham Young University. He had served two years in the army.

He is survived by his parents and 11 brothers and sisters: Mrs. W.W. Staheli, Washington; Mrs. Leo Syphus, Mrs. Phil Squire, Ferrel, Eldon E. and Kelton I., St. George; Mrs. McKay Neilson and Donald P., Arcadia, Calif.; Harold J., Blanding, and Herschel W., Henderson, Nev.

Funeral Services held for Mr. Hafen were conducted by Bishop Tony Reynolds Wednesday morning at the St. George Tabernacle. The prayer at home was offered by Guy Hafen. Prelude and postlude music was played by Darrell Reynolds on the organ. After a vocal solo by Val Garner, accompanied by Dixie Harrison. Arthur Cottam gave the invocation. Mrs. Winnie Seegmiller played a medley of L.D.S. hymns on the organ. Bishop Reynolds gave some remarks, after which Glenn E. Snow spoke. Pearl McAllister, accompanied by Ann Pace sang a solo; then Dr. Alpine McGregor spoke.

Austin Gentry played a violin solo, accompanied by Yvonne Gentry, followed by President Theodore Peterson who spoke. Nomand Gibbons sang a solo, accompanied by Darrell Reynolds; and President Harold S. Snow offered the benediction. The dedicatory prayer was offered by Heber Holt.

Pallbearers were Michael Hafen, Gary Hafen, Victor Frei, Lister Woods, and Stan Holt. Honorary pallbearers were friends of Kenneth, directed by Boyd Clark.
