Kenneth J. Whittle

HURRICANE - Kenneth John Whittle, 83, passed away on Sunday, January 1, 2006, in Hurricane. Ken was born on September 26, 1922, to James Whittle and Ellen "Nellie" Monk Whittle in a small cottage in the Pennines of England in the town of Littleborough. The Pennine chains are the backbone of England, extending from N. England to S. Scotland.

The 1930's were hard times and money was scarce for a good education. Ken was a teenager when the war broke out. During that time, Ken experienced seeing Manchester and Liverpool go up in smoke and survived the bombing years. At a young age, Ken was conscripted into the British Artillery Unit. He served in India and close to the Burma Border, where he contracted hepatitis and was flown to the army hospital near Bombay. After rehab, he was posted again to Second Indian Airborne at Karethi. At the end of the war, he returned to England.

Employment was scarce and he returned to his catering skills aboard ship, taking immigrants from England to Australia. His career was hotel management and chef, owning his own restaurants. Ken became a world traveler, having lived in six different countries. He lived his life to the fullest, having no regrets.

Ken married Margaret Bromley in Perth, Australia, and they later divorced. He was introduced to the gospel and was baptized a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on December 24, 1975, in Perth.

After the divorce, he sold his business, moved to New Zealand, and did ordinance work at the LDS Temple. He was later called to serve a mission at the New Zealand Temple.

Through some friends from Utah, also serving at the Temple, Ken was introduced to his wife, Ilona (Syme). They were married on November 24, 1984, in the Jordan River LDS Temple.

Ken is survived by his: wife, Ilona, of Hurricane; three children, Bruce, Suzanne, and Ruth, living in W. Australia; grandchildren, in W. Australia; sister, Connie Ashworth, and nephew, Rodney Ashworth, both of Kent England; as well as Ilona's extended family. Ken was preceded in death by his: parents; sister, Edna Gardner; and parents-in-law, Lenard and Bardella M. Syme.

Funeral services will be Thursday, January 5, 2006, at 1:00 p.m. at the Hurricane Stake Center, 677 South 700 West, Hurricane. At Ken's request, there will not be a public viewing. Visitation with the family will be Thursday from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., prior to services, at the Stake Center. Graveside services and burial will be Saturday, January 7, 2006, at 1:00 p.m. at the Moroni City Cemetery, Moroni, UT. Arrangements are made under the direction of Spilsbury Mortuary, 110 S. Bluff St., St. George, UT (435) 673-2454.

In lieu of flowers, contributions to a memorial headstone fund for Ken will be accepted by the family.
