JOHN BOLLWINKLE From records furnished by
Mrs. Ted W. Bollwinkel, 1639 South Fourth Avenue, Pocatello, Ida. 83201

~~xxxxxx~~

John Bollwinkel, son of Johan Frederick Bollwinkel and Adelheid Stover.
Born 25 October 1810 Dedersdorf, Aldenburg, Germany. (A sugar refiner or laborer.)

Folklore says that he had a sugar factory in Germany, but it was taxed heavily as a luxury, so he removed it to England and set it up near Liverpool.

married 25 October 1836 in Liverpool, England to Sarah Williams who was born 12 March 1805 at Shocklach, Chsh, England

She bore him five children, all born at Liverpool:
John Murray, Sarah, Frederick, Elizabeth, and Charles, the last in 1849

~~He died in Salt Lake City, Utah, in 1861~~
~~xx~~

at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas
His wife died 11 June 1852, / which means that the folk story that he "lost" his wife en route to Utah was based upon fact.
Later 1 Jan, 1854, she was sealed to him
~~xxxxxxx 19xx 1861~~

On this same date, Jan. 1, 1854, he married Betsey Titley, daughter of William Thomas Titley. She was born 19 June 1802 (8 years his senior)
She bore him two children, Elizabeth Tilley b. 5 June 1855 and William Bollwinkel 13 Jan. 1861 Both born in Sugarhouse.

Dear M. Brooks,

May I apologize for taking so long to answer your letter of July 17 which was sent to Mr. John M. Bollwinkle of Blackfoot, Idaho. Mom Bollwinkel gave it to me a week after they received it and asked me to answer it, but I got sidetracked having a baby on July 26. Now I think I've got things under control for a few minutes to drop you a line.

Enclosed please find a family group sheet on the John M. Bollwinkle that you are inquiring about. As you will notice, his first son is the individual you are referring to in the cemetery records. Thus, his father continued to own the lot and his widow after the elder Bollwinkle's death.

There were several John M. Bollwinkle's who could have owned the land you looked up, but I would imagine it was the one who emigrated from England. Then his widow, Betsey, would have continued to own the home. I don't know the address from your description but the 1893 Salt Lake City Directory lists this widow's address as "Residence 11th East & between 11-12 So." The 1885-86 Directory lists their son Fred's residence as 151 Center St. This is also the residence given at Fred's death. Whether this is the land transaction you found, I don't know.

On second thought, I'm enclosing several FGSheets involved with this John M. Bollwinkle's family. Hope this helps you in your search. If there's anything else I can do to help, let me know. Again, sorry to be so long. I have an 18-month old daughter and then this new baby and I'm just beginning to get my feet back on the ground. Thought I'd better get this answered before I had to go back to college in a few weeks.

Sincerely,

Billie Bollwinkel

Mrs. Ted W. (Billie) Bollwinkel

P.S. I notice that you're from St. George. My grandfather on my mother's side has lived there for some time. He passed away last winter. His widow lives there yet however. Samuel D. Farnsworth. Widow is Elsie. You may have known them.

My dear Billie Bollwinkel:

You wonderful person! That you should take time out in all your busy life to make out these genealogical sheets for me! I'm truly grateful. And I'm proud of you that with two young children, you still plan to continue your college work. I think my own most productive time was during the years after my second marriage (when I was well on the shady side of 30) and I had four babies in five years--in less than six years is more accurate.

What I really wanted was information on the first John Bollwinkel. From family legend I had heard that he was born in Germany, that his family were in the sugar manufacturing business, but were taxed so heavily (because sugar was considered a luxury) that he took his plant to England and set up in the Liverpool vicinity. Here he was converted to Mormonism and persuaded to sell his plant to the Church. I noticed his name in the Comprehensive History Vol. 3 p. 401 where Brother Roberts in discussing the sugar industry said... "to aid him came also John Bollwinkel...who had worked in a sugar factory in Liverpool."

The man who told me of his connection with the sugar business said that he accompanied the machinery to Utah and that he "lost" his wife on the way. He did not know how literally to take this word "lost", but I assured him that it was a synonym for "buried."

I am not connected with the family by blood, so I'm having a xerox copy made of the two John Bollwinkel sheets, adding the date of death and location of the grave, and returning them to you. They represent too much time not to be in the hands of a family member.

Indeed I do know your grandmother--and did know your grandfather Farnsworth. We do not live in the same Ward or the same Stake, so for me it has been only a casual acquaintance. My mother, who goes regularly to the temple, and my husband, who was postmaster for so many years and knows practically everyone in the village, are both well acquainted. I shall visit with your grandmother by telephone at least.

Thank you again for your time and interest.

Gratefully,

Juanita Brooks
