THE "X" IN DIXIE

Dedication

Consider the X
in our Dixie!
That intangible, unmeasurable Something
That binds us together, warming our hearts
Till wherever we are, we always are sure——
In the library
the classroom
the lab or the gym
Or basking in sunshine outside of the door——
That the whole is MORE than the sum of the parts.

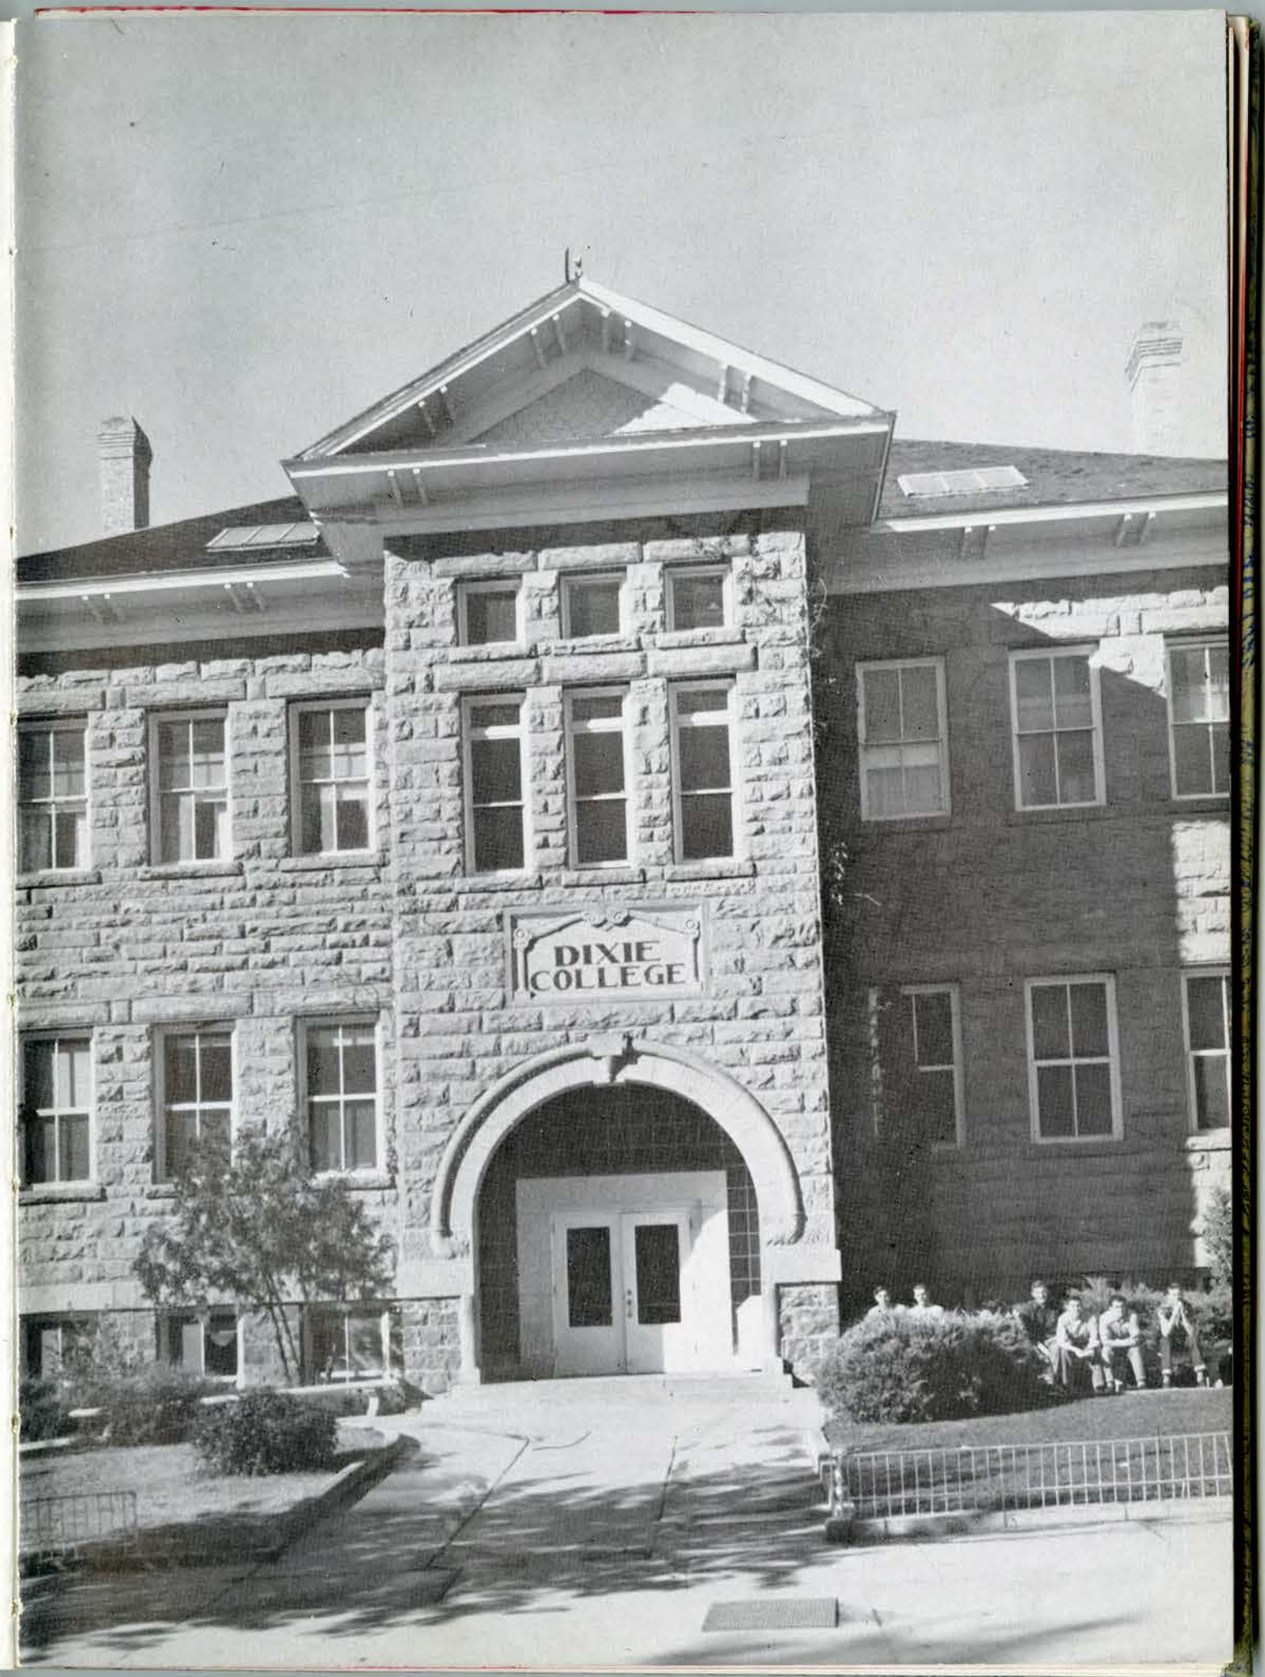

Remember
the X
in our Dixie!
How its glow helped us form lasting friendships
Inspired us with courage to dare and to do
Helped us to treasure, through day after day
Our hopes
our dreams
Our aspirations—
A lamp to our feet, lighting the way
The star we hitched our wagon to!
So to the X
in our Dixie
And all it means to all of us
We reverently dedicate this volume of the annual for 1952.

DIXIE COLLEGE LIBRARY

This is Our College

Within its red stones lie the Courage and inspiration of the Men who cut and laid them
The warmth of the Dixie sun,
The patience of the hills.
Beneath its arch have passed
An army of students—coming in to New experiences in many fields of Learning, going out to fill Responsible positions in the Work of the world.

THIS IS OUR COLLEGE
The heart of our school.

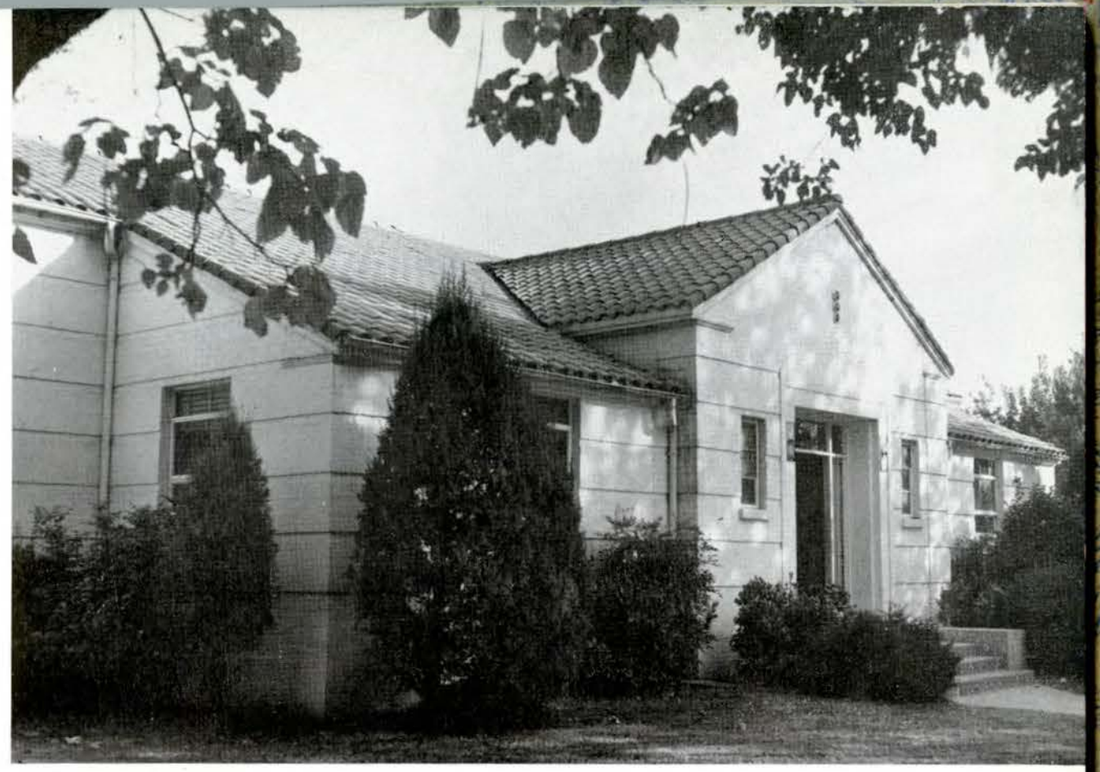

Science Building

Scene of smells (good and bad)
And of tests (A. F.'s fad!)

L. D. S. Institute

Friendly doors, opened wide,
With peace and beauty tucked inside.

Gymnasium

Scene of battles long and loud
With band and pep club to rouse the crowd.

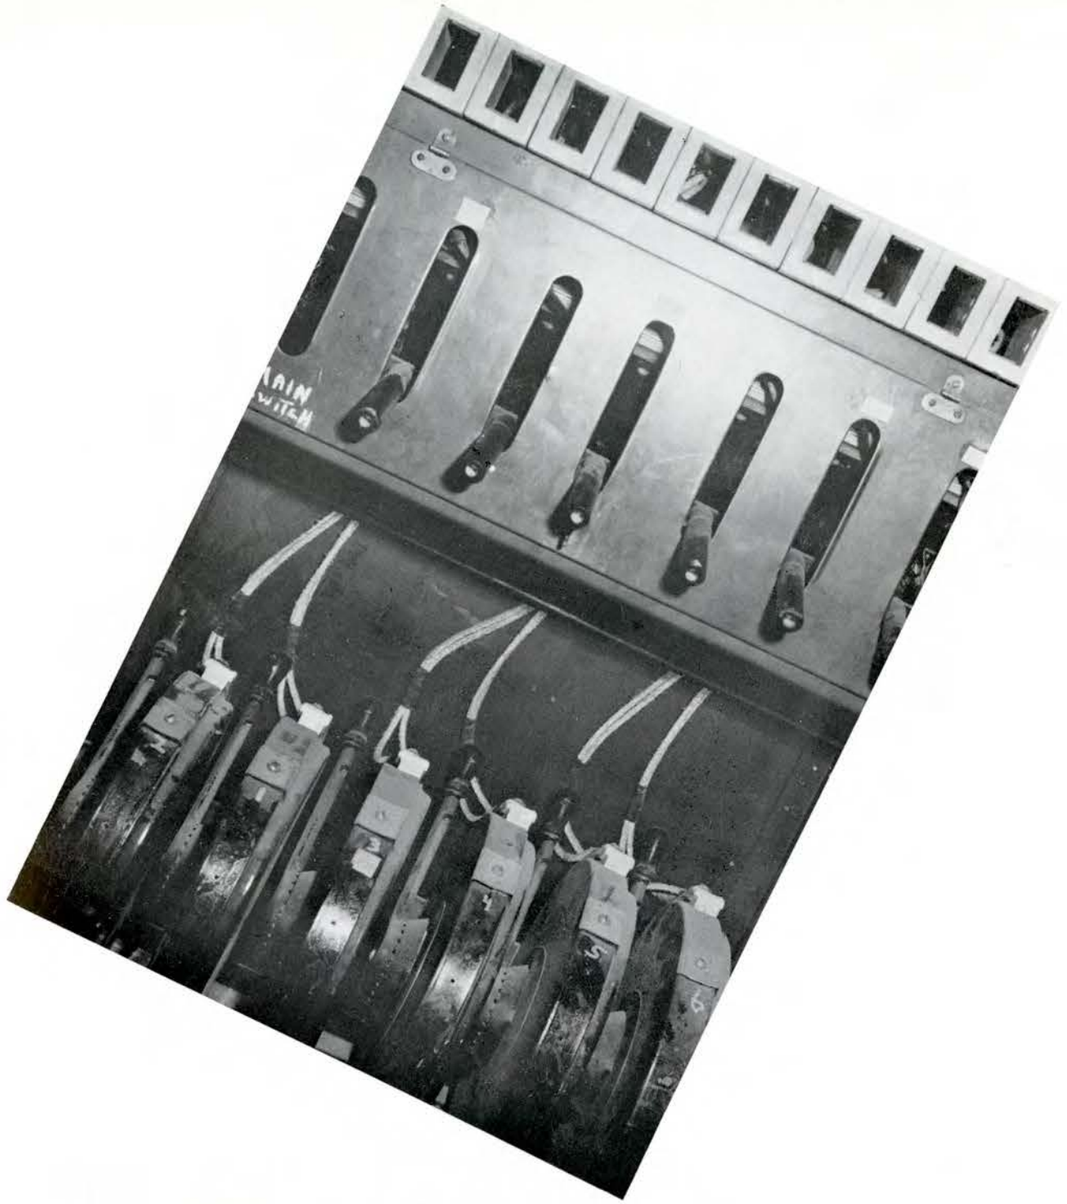

Recreation Hall

Boy meets girl, at a ball,
Glad he did! Bless this hall!

Industrial Arts Building

Scene of striving, work and fun. Plans are made for years to come.
