Dear Sister Penelope

Be not false, unkind or cruel;

Banish evil words or strife;

Thus shall each day be a jewel

Strung upon thy thread of life.

Your Loving Sister

Jennie Bleak

Love me little,

Penelope, my dear, as your Mother's First Born –
Earnestly strive in your life's early morn,
Nobly, and ever promptly, your duty to:
Early and late, lovely Virtue pursue.
Life, sweet life, when well spent, whether early or late,
On your head will bring bliss, rich and great.
Purity in Thought, Intention and Action,
Everlastingly brings complete satisfaction.
Father.

As thro' life's span we fleeting go,
We should not this forget.
'Tis always better not to do
Things that we will regret,
For memories in declining years,
Will make us young in age,
If sunny life from youth appears,
Thro' its eventual stage.
