OUR HUMBLE ABODE...

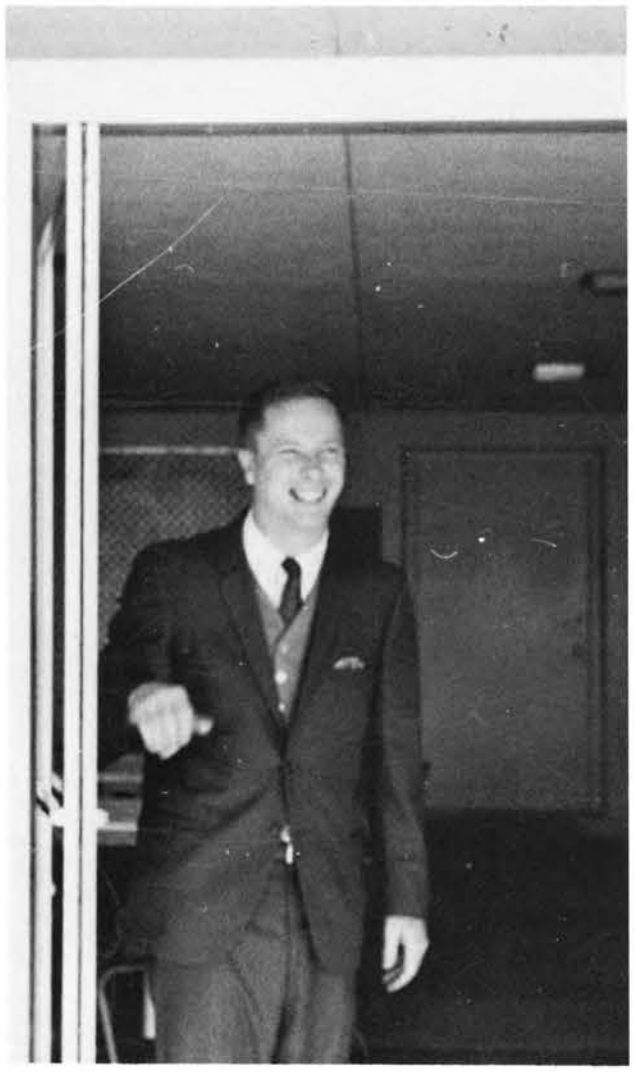

DEDICATION

Here is a man who is sincere, alert, individual, and interested in the students. He exemplifies maturity and character, patriotism and open mindedness. His are the qualities we strive to achieve, but seldom realize. Here is a good man and a great teacher. It is with pride and affection that we dedicate this, our yearbook for 1970 to Mr. Arza Evans.

Truly we can say Mr. Evans is one of the qualities that has made Dixie resound with enthusiasm. He is the ideal of Southern Spirit.

Homecoming Committee L to R; Roger Cazier, Terry Stout, Jana Jackson, John Ence, Janet Maughan, and Stefine Esplin

Queen Jacalyn Smith, 1st attendant, Patricia Eliason, and 2nd attendant Susan Memmott

HOMECOMING

The Southern Spirit of Dixie was never more prevalent than during the exciting and glittering week of Homecoming, 1969. The Homecoming committee outdid themselves with activities designed to invigorate the campus. The week came to an end with the parade on Saturday morning. Crowds lined the streets to watch the "Dixie Dream" come forth. The afternoon witnessed a thrilling football game between the Rebels and Mesa, Arizona. Finally the Homecoming dance "Perchance to Dream" was at the Recreation Hall. Alumni and students alike will long remember their own "Dixie Dream."

HOMECOMING FOOTBALL GAME

HOMECOMING QUEENS

Dixie's Dream became personified as she made known her preference for Homecoming queen, 1969-70. Her choice to reign was Jackie Smith, to be flanked by two attendants, Patti Eliason and Susan Memmott.

Jackie Smith hails from Newton, Utah, and she represented the true Southern Spirit throughout her reign. Patti Eliason calls Las Vegas home and she has brought an impressive string of honors along with her to Dixie. Susan Memmott heads for Scipio, Utah when a reaction comes her way. A member of Sigma Sota Chi, she successfully supplied the third corner to this Dixie triangle of beauty.

Graig Anderson and Peggy Sheets,

SADIE HAWKINS

With men chasing females behind every corner, Dixie College men had to walk softly and carry a big stick, or get grabbed for a night on the town at the Sadie Hawkins Dance. It was held at the East Elementary School, and Daisy Mae and Lil Abner were to be viewed in abundance. The dance had something for everyone from marriage to jail and was worth remembering for quite a spell.

Ho! Ho! Its Yoggo Bear!!

HALLOWEEN DANCE

GLEN YARBROUGH

A special treat was in store for all of Dixie College and St. George, in the form of entertainer Glen Yarbrough. His pillow concert attracted throngs of people from all over, who listened enthralled to the clear notes of the folk songs. His most famous song is "Baby the Rain Must Fall," will be a favorite of folk song enthusiasts.

THE SWEETHEART'S BALL

Dixie has always been a school of young sweethearts. Every year they are honored at a special dance given for them by Sigma Gamma Chi. This year, the Sweetheart's Ball, as always, was a success. Under the theme, "The Look of Love," couples danced into the morning hours oblivious of the world outside. Reigning over the Ball were King Kim Hartvigsen and Queen Rexine McCallister. The event will long be remembered by the sweethearts who attended it.

King and Queen Candidates: John Copier, Creta Rassmussen, Clark Sullivan, Sue Hafen, Kim Hartvigsen, Sharon McArthur, Fred Kamper, Rexine McAllister, Jerry Alldredge and Jeri Matthews.

SWEETHEARTS BALL

The Sweethearts Ball was held Saturday, Feb. 14, in the Fifth and Sixth ward chapel. Lambda Delta Sigma Sorority and Sigma Gamma Chi Fraternity sponsored the formal dance which was directed by Montrue Larkin and Wendall Grey.

The King and Queen candidates then danced Royalty waltz after which the King and Queen were presented, Kim Hartvigsen was chosen King with Rexine McAllister, Queen.

This dance was very successful and will be a dance we'll never forget.

MENS WEEK

Under the direction of A.M.S. President Fred Kamper, Men's Week at Dixie 1970, proved to be a week of weeks. Slated to take place March 6-12, the ideas the A.M.S. Council dreamed up kept Rebels and faculty alike on their toes in anticipation of the day to come. Among the attention grabbing events were a slave sale of all the girls on campus, a tug-a-war, a pie-eating contest, and a car bash. The week finally came to an end with a dance and the crowning of the most preferred girl on campus, Patti Eliason. The council outdid themselves this year to make Men's Week a week of enduring Southern Spirit.

COMPETITIVE ASSEMBLY

The imaginative genius of the sophomore and Freshman classes comes to the fore when they are called on to present their competitive assemblies. This year the assemblies vibrated with youth, enthusiasm, and Southern spirit. The hard work required to present an assembly paid off for both classes as Dixie applauded her Rebels in their day of story.

THE SUMMERTIME OF DAYS

In the summertime of days
a man is nothing more than a tear in some old year
that was cast aside by God.

In the summertime of days
we are as we must be shadows all on our way to fall
if not eternity.

And if we must look for heaven
then heaven must surely be in arms that are warm and smiles if they tender be.

In the summertime of days
I'll ask for nothing more than a face and a quiet place
that was cast aside by God.

D-DAY WEEK

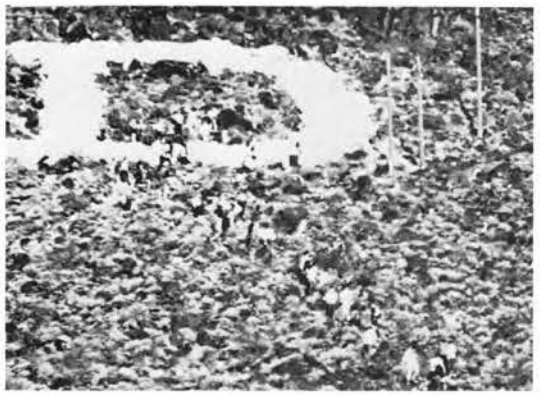

1970 is a far cry from 1915. But the spirit of Dixie then and now, is as always, unbeatable. During "D-Day Week" the events have changed a little throughout the years. This year saw the stocks in operation engulfing unwary Rebels who had no pin, hat, or flag. The queen's assembly dazzled spectators and the annual parade and white-wash of the "D" will add to any college career that spark of ife. The week was brought to an end with the unforgettable D-Day Dance. The D-Day committee can be congratulated on their outstanding efforts in making this year's D-Week one of unsurpassed "D-Power," and Southern Spirit.
