Dear Sister Penelope

Be not false, unkind or cruel;
Banish evil words or strife;
Thus shall each day be a jewel
Strung upon thy thread of life.

Denelope, my dear, as your Mother's First Born—
Earnestly strive in your life's early morn,
Nobly, ^{and} ever promptly, your duty to do:
Early ^{and} late, lovely Virtue pursue.

Life, sweet life, when well spent, whether early or late,
On your head will bring bliss, rich ^{and} great.

Purity in Thought, Intention ^{and} Action,
Everlastingly brings complete satisfaction.

Father.

Dear Nellie:

You ask me to write in your album,
and, really I cannot decline,
For I hope, always Dear Nellie,
To be counted a true friend of thine

Dear friend Nellie Bleak.

Life is not living just for to-day.

Life is not dreaming, all the short

It is living for another, to lighten the load

It is helping your brother, and trusting in God.

Dear Nellie,

Keep your heart from all that defileth always.
From aught that can make you impure, turn away.
Be purer than water in rivers that run.
As pure as the light shining down from the sun.

As tho' lifes span we fleeting go,

We should not this forget,

'Tis always better not - to know

Things that we will regret,

For memories in declining years,

Will make us young in age,

If sunny life from youth appears,

Thro' its eventful stage.
