"Despite a 52% increase in student enrollment and the rapid development of Dixie College, it maintains the genuine loyalty of its students. In this day of so-called 'student sophistication,' it is both refreshing and stimulating to know that Dixie retains that precious something which strengthens the bonds of friendship. You have contributed to the progress of Dixie and I sincerely hope the college in turn has made a contribution to your personal growth and stimulated you toward greater achievements."

"Education is our most valuable tool for progress. Our individual futures, the future of our state and nation, depend upon our ability to learn to use the knowledge opening up before us. Let us make the most of every opportunity we have to learn - learn about ourselves, our fellow men, and the world about us. Our continual search for knowledge must be tempered with a continuing search for understanding."

they built a new dixie...

then left it for those who will follow.

sophomores

Into a land of forever-autumn we came as journeymen stepping into the long and dusty road that leads to infinite wisdom. A confused, individualized mass of varied capacities and diversified interests, we set about to change or be changed. And now in the waning of our stay we look back into that treasury of well-spent hours, and then forward into an age that demands all that we can give as the maximum requirement, and rates maximum achievement as the starting point. We go from autumn setting down the dusty road into the sunrise of another day — made better by the strange combination of solidity, intellect, and eternal comradeship we sought and discovered here. We built a college in our two years. We left Dixie a little better than we found it. We pioneered many new ways of life and Dixie burst alive with a splendor we called the Dawn of a New Era.

The enthusiastic and progressive Freshman Class was led by Secretary Margaret Hafen, Commissioner of Amusements Greg Prince, President Mike Miller, Vice-President Hardy Redd, and Commissioner of Amusements Jackie Tippets.

homecoming

The presence of President and Mrs. Losee added to the success of the dance.

sadie hawkins' day

Pretty Edie Nielson, Daisy Mae, and Ed Blaney, Li'l Abner, reigned over the dance.
